5	145	9.3	Move coordinates next to words 'Powers Road'.	A/C
8	164	Warnings	The lower end of the tunnel has been opened and lights have been installed. Vehicles can now be left near the bridge as the pathway returns to the Derby town area.	U/UC
11	80	17.1	The bridge over the Derwent River (Repulse Dam) has been declared "Past its Use by date" It is closed to vehicular traffic.	C/G
12	154	0.1	In the blue box replace 'just' (second last line) with '150m'. Before 'Return' (last line) add 'A further 1.2km along the road from the new bridge the Duco adit will be found just off the northern side of the road. Look out for a marker and sign. A torch will be needed.'	A/C
13	154	2.4	In the blue box below change 41° 13' 15" S 148° 01' 19" E to 41° 13' 48" S 148° 00' 45" E	A/C
14	96	9.1	Alternative route to Airwalk due to access being restricted by boom gate At point 9.1 (page 96) keep straight ahead (KSA) on minor road. 11.4 T junction. Turn left. 0.1 KSA 5.6 T junction with the sealed Arve Road Turn right to the Airwalk 15.1km (left to Geeveston)	A/C
16	131	9.8	When descending a steep section towards point 12.7 lookout for a star picket protruding only 100mm on the righthand side of the track. The location is at 41° 54' 49"S 148° 12' 41"E or 1.8km from point 9.8. The picket has claimed least one tyre. Stones have been placed around the picket.	A/C
17	111	Access	A 'No through Rd' sign has been erected on Pirates Road where it joins the Arthur Highway. This appears to be due to the failure of a bridge a few kilometres in on the Coronation/Pirates road (see the second 0.0 point . However there appears to be no road authority restriction to proceeding to the lookout. But the road 200m before the lookout (and end of the road) has deteriorated to the extent that two-wheel drive vehicles are be likely to come to grief.	U/C
18	114	0.0	The wooden bridge has been washed away in a flood. Access is not possible.	U/C
